

ALVA'S HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE, MIJAR

DEPARTMENT OF OBSTETRICS & GYNECOLOGY

World Breastfeeding Awareness Day Report

Date: August 10, 2024 (Saturday)

Organized by: Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology

Objective: To raise awareness about the importance of breastfeeding and engage students and staff in creative activities promoting the theme.

The Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology conducted an innovative program on World Breastfeeding Awareness Day, featuring various competitions for students and staff. The event aimed to educate and engage the audience on the significance of breastfeeding through creative expressions.

Competitions Conducted:

1. Clay Modeling: Participants created clay models depicting breastfeeding scenarios, showcasing their creativity and understanding of the theme.
2. Poem Writing: Students and staff wrote poems in English, Kannada, and Hindi, expressing the importance and beauty of breastfeeding.
3. Slogan Writing: Participants created slogans in three languages, conveying the message of breastfeeding awareness.
4. Pencil Sketching: Beautiful sketches were created, highlighting the special bond between a mother and child during breastfeeding.
5. Comic Strips: Engaging comic strips were designed to convey the importance of breastfeeding in an entertaining and informative way.

Poster Presentation: Students presented attractive and informative posters on various aspects of breastfeeding, such as its benefits, techniques, and challenges. The posters were judged, and prizes were awarded to the best entries.
